

As the Cost Accountant, you will be responsible for gross margin analysis, participating in month-end, treasury governance, cash management, prepare incoming and outgoing payments and much more.

Some of What You'll Do:

- Prepare, analyze and report weekly, monthly, quarterly gross margin analysis by customer type
- Assist in month-end closing, prepare journal entries as necessary, analyze inventory evaluation, inventory roll forward
- Prepare collateral reporting
- Analyze cost accounting data and assist with cycle count/physical inventories
- Prepare detailed account analysis and reconcile sales, cost and inventory, liability accounts by customer type
- Review and analyze inventory and margin reports, conduct research and perform analytical studies in regards to cost analyses and profitability
- Support and assist internal department reporting requirements such as audit schedules, tax schedules and others
- Ensure timely submission, accuracy and validity of inventory, gross margin schedules to management

Some of What You'll Need:

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting/Finance
- Ability to perform the essential functions of the job, experience in treasury/cash management or banking field preferred
- Ability to apply knowledge of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles & Cost Accounting Standards
- Ability to research, compile, analyze and interpret data
- Excellent communication (written and verbal), analytical and interpersonal skills
- Strong computer skills, including proficiency in Microsoft Office products
- Ability to analyze and reconcile complex accounts and reserves
- Knowledge of Great Plains and Momentis systems preferred
- Apparel industry background preferred
- Ability to work independently under minimal supervision
- Ability to handle multiple tasks under tight deadlines