

As the Full Stack Magento Expert Developer, you will contribute to our existing Magento 2 project and numerous tailor-made development projects. As a developer in the application systems team, you will be working alongside different development team members on different projects across the company utilizing your skills and expertise while learning new and exciting new technologies along the way.

Some of What You'll Do:

- Participate in the definitions of architectures and define good development practices
- Work with various departments, such as finance and marketing to identify needs and act as an expert and technical advisor
- Support and train the web team to become Magento experts
- Develop and modify new e-commerce extensions in PHP and Magento 2
- Create and work with applications to ensure communication between ERP software and Magento websites are performing efficiently
- Work with a team to create Web modules using APIs
- Ensure quality assurance by testing the code and performing code reviews
- Optimize sites
- Implement technical optimizations specific to organic referencing (SEO)

Some of What You'll Need:

- Minimum of 3 years of Magento experience
- Minimum of 5 years of experience in HTML, jQuery, JavaScript, CSS
- Minimum of 3 years of experience in PHP and MySQL
- HTML/CSS & JavaScript experience (jQuery, Knockout, react.js, Bootstrap etc.), RWD Designs and cross browser and platform optimization.
- Strong knowledge in the development of Rest Api / Web Services
- Mastery of Javascript and CSS
- Knowledge of GIT
- Capacities to identify and solve issues;
- Good verbal and written aptitudes;
- Good knowledge of Object-Oriented development;
- Excellent Team Player
- Contribute as part of an agile team
- Evolve in a continuous development and deployment environment
- Meticulous and methodical
- Always ahead of the curve both technologically and technically